

RapidSend Srvcs entered the gift wrapping, packaging, and shipping services industry in 2010, with a strict commitment to providing professional, designer gift wrapping and packaging services.

In 2010, RapidSend Srvcs began establishing working relationships with eBay and Amazon sellers to provide them with gift wrapping, packaging, transportation, shipping and logistics services. Today, RapidSend Srvcs is proud to be part of Amazon Hub. RapidSend Srvcs delivers Amazon packages directly to customers' doors.

Our services help eBay and Amazon sellers cut the overhead cost of running a gift wrapping, packaging, and shipping services department. We offer a range of services and products. Our approach to small businesses focuses on fully understanding their unique financial objectives and then fashioning a customized plan to help the company achieve its specific financial goals.

We work objectively, creatively, and collaboratively to provide innovative solutions that meet your business needs and deliver comprehensive services, offering tailored and manageable solutions to address your specific requirements.

Some of the Benefits to our clients include:

- Business-to-Business Service
- Elimination of all supply costs
- Consistency of presentation and customer satisfaction
- A fast turnaround enhances customer satisfaction and increases sales
- A wide array of transportation, shipping, & logistics to choose from
